Benefit

Weight watching or just needing a protein boost? Young Living's new Wolfberry Crisp bar has it all—it's a fabulous meal replacement bar that tastes good and is full of nutrition. And for those who are sculpting their body with weight training and require extra protein, Wolfberry Crisp has 16 powerful grams of protein flavored with natural, low-glycemic sweeteners. When was the last time you ate something so good for you that has such a delicious taste?

Wolfberry Crisp bars are all-natural and certified dairy kosher.

Ingredients

Protein complex (soy: Isolated soy protein, rice flour, malt and salt—whey: rice flour, whey protein isolate, whey protein concentrate and calcium carbonate); organic blue agave (A. tequilana) nectar; raw almond butter; Ningxia wolfberry (Lycium barbarum) fruit; raw pumpkin seeds; raw cashews; raw walnuts; unsweetened carob chips; pure vanilla bean extract and natural banana flavoring.

How to Use

For a meal replacement or an energy snack, eat one bar as desired.
